

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

LIEUTENANT COLONEL JACOB A. RAMER

Lieutenant Colonel Jacob A. Ramer is the Staff Judge Advocate for the 28th Bomb Wing, Ellsworth Air Force Base, South Dakota – the largest B-1B Lancer combat wing in the U.S. Air Force, providing combat-ready aircraft and support for global engagement taskings. The installation, with more than 12,000 active-duty military, civilian employees, and family members, will also serve as the primary future operating base of the B-21 Raider, the first strategic bomber in more than three decades. As Staff Judge Advocate, Lt Col Ramer leads a team of 21 personnel delivering comprehensive legal services to the Wing Commander, 4 Groups, 15 Squadrons, as well as the 89th Attack Squadron, responsible for employing MQ-9 Reaper aircraft in support of worldwide combatant commander requirements.

Lt Col Ramer received a direct commission as an Air Force judge advocate in June 2008 and entered active duty in September 2008. He has served as deputy staff judge advocate for a Component Numbered Air Force, deployed staff judge advocate, deputy staff judge advocate for a wing, senior defense counsel, senior trial counsel, and area defense counsel. He is admitted to practice law before the Illinois Supreme Court and the United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces. Prior to entering active duty, Lt Col Ramer practiced civil litigation in Chicago, IL from 2006-2008 and taught history and economics at two American international high schools in Switzerland from 2000-2003.
