

COMMANDER'S EQUAL OPPORTUNITY VISION STATEMENT

As professional Airmen we have an obligation to set high standards, live our core values at all times, and demonstrate respect to our fellow Airmen.

Respect at all levels in our wing is the most important factor in our ability to work together and foster mission success. Without it, our bond is weakened and our mission to defend this nation is compromised. Mutual respect strengthens the team and prevents seams that if left unchecked, will weaken our force.

One of the greatest responsibilities we have is to foster an environment where every member of the team has the opportunity to succeed without the fear of harassment or discrimination. There is no room in our Air Force or this wing for unprofessional behavior that violates our commitment to Equal Opportunity. I am committed to each and every member of this team and will not tolerate deviant behavior that erodes our core values as Airmen. We must all take responsibility to ensure we have the environment to succeed, there is no room for apathy—it takes all of us working together. We owe it to ourselves and our legacy to maintain the highest professional standards as warriors entrusted with protecting the greatest nation on this earth.

Gentry W. Boswell

GENTRY W. BOSWELL, Col, USAF
Commander, 28th Bomb Wing

