

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

MRS. AMY M. COBERLEY

Amy is a Legal Assistant for the Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, 28th Bomb Wing, Ellsworth Air Force Base, South Dakota. She provides legal assistance for the Staff Judge Advocate, other staff attorneys and clients. She reviews and prepares incoming and outgoing administrative correspondence, reports, and messages while performing other administrative clerical duties in support of the Staff Judge Advocate. She executes a broad spectrum of civil law functions with precision and professionalism—including wills and estate planning, and notary services to more than 12,000 Airmen, dependents, and retirees. Her actions ensure the 28th Bomb Wing is able to provide rapid, decisive, and sustainable combat air power and expeditionary combat support.

Amy was born in Iowa City, Iowa and graduated high school in Lisbon, Iowa. She has supported her husband's Air Force Career (MSgt Darren Coberley), living in South Dakota, Lakenheath, United Kingdom and Okinawa, Japan. She is the mother of two children. Jackson is a cadet at the United States Air Force Academy and Carson is studying electrical engineering at the SD School of Mines and Technology. Amy began her civilian career with Department of Defense Education Agency (DoDEA), Pacific in Okinawa, Japan in 2017, working with the special education assessors at the schools. Amy joined the Air Force as a civilian employee with the Legal Office at Ellsworth Air Force Base in 2025.
